

1. Manuel Urrutia - First President under Castro; resigned 1959; in exile since April 1961.
2. Jose Miro Cardona - First Prime Minister Under Castro; resigned February 1959; in exile since October 1960; President of the Cuban Revolutionary Council, the main anti-Castro organization in exile.
3. Roberto Agramonte - First Foreign Minister under Castro; resigned June 1959; in exile.
4. Manuel Ray - First Minister of Public Works under Castro; resigned November 1959; in exile since late 1960; leader of anti-Castro group.
5. Rufo Lopez Fresquet - First Minister of Finance under Castro; resigned March 1960; in exile.
6. Elena Mederos - First Minister of Social Welfare under Castro; resigned 1959; took asylum in late 1960; in exile.
7. Julio Camacho - First Minister of Transportation under Castro; defected and sought asylum about June 1961; reported to be in prison.
8. Humberto Sori Marin - First Minister of Agriculture under Castro; joined the anti-Castro underground; executed in March 1961.
9. Hubert Matos - Rebel army commander and Chief of the Army in Camaguey Province; resigned October 1959; sentenced to 30 years in prison.
10. Felipe Pazos - First President of the National Bank under Castro; resigned 1960; in exile.
11. Justo Carrillo - First President of the Development Bank under Castro; resigned early 1960; anti-Castro leader in exile.
12. Emilio Menendez - Chief Justice of the Supreme Court under Castro; resigned November 1960; in exile.
13. Pedro Diaz Lanz - Castro's first Chief of the Air Force and private pilot; defected in mid 1959; in exile.

14. David Salvador - Secretary General of the Cuban Labor Federation under Castro; in prison since October 1960.
15. Luis Conte Aguero - Castro's TV and radio spokesman and biographer; went into asylum in 1960; in exile.
16. Miguel Angel Quevelo - Editor of Bohemia Magazine and supporter of Castro; went into asylum in July 1960; now in exile.
17. Osvaldo Ramirez - Student leader; fought in the hills with Castro; executed in 1960.
18. Jose Pardo Llada - TV and radio commentator; vitriolic critic of the U.S.; defected in 1961; in exile.
19. Juan Orta - Personal aide and press secretary to Castro; in asylum since January 1961.
20. Julio Duarte - Resistance leader in Castro's revolutionary movement; resigned October 1960; in exile.